

APSC Prelims Study Pack

Explanation Booklet (Version C) · Profile: APSC_PRELIMS

Q1. [Q-0001] The Constitution of India was adopted on:

Key: A — 26 November 1949

Explanation: Adoption (26 November 1949) is distinct from commencement of Fundamental Rights (26 January 1950). Option C borrows Independence Day; D shifts the adoption year.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1

Topic: Polity · Purpose: direct_recall | Cognitive: recall | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Direct factual recall of a high-value fact.

Q2. [Q-0002] The Fundamental Rights in Part III entered into force on:

Key: B — 26 January 1950

Explanation: Part III rights became enforceable on 26 January 1950, the date the Constitution commenced — not the adoption date (26 November 1949).

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1

Topic: Polity · Purpose: direct_recall | Cognitive: recall | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Direct factual recall of a high-value fact.

Q3. [Q-0003] Consider the following statements: 1. Fundamental Rights are contained in Articles 12 to 35 of the Constitution. 2. They are justiciable, so a citizen can move the Supreme Court under Article 32 or a High Court under Article 226 when a right is violated. 3. Fundamental Rights are contained in Part IV of the Constitution. Which of the above is/are correct?

Key: C — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 restate the source: Articles 12-35, enforceable via Article 32/226.

Statement 3 swaps Part III for Part IV (Directive Principles), which are non-justiciable.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1

Topic: Polity · Purpose: statement_evaluation | Cognitive: analysis | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Multiple statements require joint evaluation.

Q4. [Q-0004] Under Article 12, the term 'State' does NOT include:

Key: D — Private individuals running public shops

Explanation: Article 12 covers governments, legislatures, local and other public authorities. Private individuals appear in the notes only under Article 15's public-place clauses, not in the Article 12 definition.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0005 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Topic: Polity · Purpose: direct_recall | Cognitive: recall | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Direct factual recall of a high-value fact.

Q5. [Q-0005] Consider the following statements: 1. Under Article 13, 'law' includes ordinances, orders, bye-laws, rules, regulations, notifications, and customs or usages having the force of law. 2. All laws in force before 26 January 1950 that are inconsistent with Fundamental Rights are void to the extent of the inconsistency. 3. Article 13 protects laws that abridge Fundamental Rights from challenge. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are the source definitions. Statement 3 reverses Article 13: it voids inconsistent laws and bars the State from abridging Part III; it protects no abridging law.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0007 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1

Topic: Polity · Purpose: statement_evaluation | Cognitive: analysis | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Multiple statements require joint evaluation.

Q6. [Q-0006] Article 13 bars the State from:

Key: B — Making any law that takes away or abridges Part III rights

Explanation: The bar is specific: no law taking away or abridging Part III rights. It is not a ban on all amendments, nor does it touch consistent pre-1950 laws.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1

Topic: Polity · Purpose: direct_recall | Cognitive: recall | Revision: medium | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Direct factual recall of a high-value fact.

Q7. [Q-0007] Consider the following statements: 1. The First Amendment (1951) added Article 13(4) cover for land-reform laws and inserted Articles 31A and 31B with the Ninth Schedule. 2. The Forty-second Amendment (1976) attempted to shield all Directive Principles from Articles 14 and 19. 3. The Forty-fourth Amendment (1978) deleted the right to property as a Fundamental Right. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1, 2 and 3

Explanation: All three track the source sequence: 1951 land-reform shield (31A/31B, Ninth Schedule), 1976 DPSP shield attempt against Articles 14/19, and the 1978 rollback deleting property from Part III.

Source: How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1 | How to use these notes>1. Fundamental Rights: Articles 12 to 35, an overview · B-0008 · p.1

Memory aid: Amendment ladder: 1951 land, 1976 shield, 1978 rollback.

Topic: Polity · Purpose: statement_evaluation | Cognitive: analysis | Revision: high | Misconception: Students confuse this with the closest distractor; see explanation. | Difficulty: Multiple statements require joint evaluation.

Q8. [Q-0008] Consider the following statements: 1. In 1951 the First Amendment added Articles 31A, 31B and Article 15(4). 2. In 1976 the Forty-second Amendment inserted 14A-related changes and the words Socialist, Secular and Integrity into the Preamble. 3. In 1992 the Supreme Court in Indra Sawhney capped reservations at 60 percent. Which is/are correct?

Key: D — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 match the timeline. Statement 3 alters the Indra Sawhney cap from 50 to 60 percent — the single changed figure decides the key.

Q9. [Q-0009] The Eighty-sixth Amendment (2002) inserted Article 21A, providing free and compulsory education for children aged:

Key: A — 6 to 14 years

Explanation: Article 21A is 6-to-14 education. Option D borrows Article 24's below-14 hazardous-work bar — a different article and a different protection.

Q10. [Q-0010] Consider the following statements: 1. The Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act (2009) was passed to enforce Article 21A. 2. Article 21A, on education for ages 6-14, was inserted by the 86th Amendment in 2002 and enforced through the 2009 education Act. 3. The 2009 Act enforces Article 21 (life and liberty) directly. Which is/are correct?

Key: B — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Both true statements anchor on Article 21A. Statement 3 swaps 21A for Article 21 — the parent right is not the enforced provision.

Source: Exam Study Notes: Fundamental Rights and the Brahmaputra System>Key timeline points to memorise: · B-0010 · p.1 | Key timeline points to memorise:>5. Article 21: life, liberty and an expanding promise · B-0028 · p.3

Q11. [Q-0011] Consider the following statements: 1. In Shreya Singhal (2015) the Supreme Court struck down Section 66A of the IT Act. 2. Vague limits on online speech were held not to be reasonable restrictions under Article 19(2). 3. The Court upheld Section 66A as a reasonable restriction. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: The source states the strike-down twice (timeline and Article 19 discussion). Statement 3 asserts the opposite outcome and contradicts both.

Q12. [Q-0012] In Justice K. S. Puttaswamy v. Union of India (2017), a nine-judge bench declared privacy a Fundamental Right under:

Key: D — Article 21

Explanation: Privacy flows from Article 21's life and liberty (later listed among implied Article 21 rights). Articles 19, 14 and 32 each protect something else.

Q13. [Q-0013] The One Hundred and Third Amendment (2019) inserted Articles 15(6) and 16(6), providing up to 10 percent reservation for:

Key: A — Economically Weaker Sections

Explanation: 15(6)/16(6) are the EWS provisions (10%). Backward classes sit under 15(4)/16(4), SC/ST promotion under 16(4A), women and children under 15(3).

Q14. [Q-0014] Match List-I (Article) with List-II (subject): 1. Article 12 2. Article 13 3. Article 14. 4. Article 15 5. Article 16. List-II: (a) Equality before law and equal protection (b) No discrimination on listed grounds (c) Equality in public employment (d) Definition of State (e) Laws inconsistent with Fundamental Rights. Correct code 1-2-3-4-5:

Key: B — d-e-a-b-c

Explanation: 12 defines the State, 13 voids inconsistent laws, 14 is equality, 15 bars listed-ground discrimination, 16 is public employment. Wrong codes swap neighbours — the table order is the check.

Q15. [Q-0015] Match: 1. Article 17 2. Article 18 3. Article 19 4. Article 20 5. Article 21. Subjects: (a) Six freedoms (b) Life and personal liberty (c) Abolition of untouchability (d) Abolition of titles (e) Protection in convictions. Correct code 1-2-3-4-5:

Key: C — c-d-a-e-b

Explanation: 17 ends untouchability, 18 ends titles, 19 gives six freedoms, 20 guards convictions, 21 guards life/liberty. Each wrong code swaps one adjacent pair.

Q16. [Q-0016] Match: 1. Article 21A 2. Article 22 3. Article 23 4. Article 24 5. Article 32. Subjects: (a) No trafficking or forced labour (b) No child labour in hazardous work (c) Free and compulsory education (d) Right to Constitutional Remedies (e) Protection against arrest and detention. Correct code 1-2-3-4-5:

Key: D — c-e-a-b-d

Explanation: 21A is education, 22 arrest/detention safeguards, 23 trafficking and begar, 24 under-14 hazardous work, 32 remedies. Note 23-vs-24 (labour) and 22-vs-32 (remedy) traps.

Q17. [Q-0017] Consider the following statements: 1. Articles 25 to 28 protect freedom of religion: conscience, practice, propagation, management, and no religious taxes. 2. Articles 29 to 30 protect cultural and educational rights: minority language, script, culture and institutions. 3. Articles 29 to 30 protect freedom of religion. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Religion sits in 25-28, minority culture/education in 29-30. Statement 3 swaps the two blocks — the classic adjacent-block confusion.

Q18. [Q-0018] 'Absence of any special privilege for any person' is the meaning of:

Key: B — Equality before the law

Explanation: Absence of privilege is the negative concept (equality before law); equal treatment of equals with reasonable classification is the positive one (equal protection). C and D belong to the Article 21 debate.

Source: Key timeline points to memorise:>3. Article 14 and the equality code of Articles 15 and 16 · B-0015 · p.2 | Key timeline points to memorise:>3. Article 14 and the equality code of Articles 15 and 16 · B-0016 · p.2

Q19. [Q-0019] Consider the following statements: 1. Equality before the law is negative (denies special privilege); equal protection is positive (permits reasonable classification). 2. Article 14 covers all persons, citizens and non-citizens alike. 3. Article 14 covers citizens only. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are source text. Statement 3 contradicts 2 directly and confuses Article 14 (all persons) with Article 19 (citizens only).

Q20. [Q-0020] A classification under Article 14 is valid only if it rests on an intelligible differentia and the differentia has:

Key: D — A rational relation to the object of the law

Explanation: The two-part test is intelligible differentia plus rational nexus to the law's object. Uniform application would defeat classification itself; B and D import foreign requirements.

Q21. [Q-0021] Consider the following statements: 1. Article 15 bars discrimination only on religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth, while Article 16 guarantees equality of opportunity in public employment. 2. Article 15 binds the State and, in some clauses, private individuals running public places like shops, wells and roads. 3. Article 16 applies to employment under private companies. 4. Article 16 applies to employment under the State. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1, 2 and 4 only

Explanation: 1, 2 and 4 are source text. Statement 3 moves Article 16 into private employment, contradicting statement 4 within the same set.

Q22. [Q-0022] Consider the following statements: 1. Article 15(3) allows special provisions for women and children; Article 15(4), added in 1951, covers socially and educationally backward classes. 2. Articles 15(5) and 15(6) extend reservations to private educational institutions and to EWS respectively. 3. Article 15(4) was added in 1976. Which is/are correct?

Key: B — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: 15(4) dates to the First Amendment (1951), not 1976 (the 42nd Amendment year) — the false statement borrows a nearby amendment year.

Q23. [Q-0023] Reservation in promotion for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes is permitted by:

Key: C — Article 16(4A)

Explanation: 16(4) is general backward-class reservation, 16(4A) promotion for SC/ST, 16(6) EWS, and 15(4) sits in a different article altogether.

Q25. [Q-0025] Match the freedom with its clause: 1. Speech and expression 2. Peaceful assembly without arms 3. Associations or unions 4. Free movement in India 5. Residence and settlement 6. Profession, trade or business. Clauses: (a) 19(1)(a) (b) 19(1)(b) (c) 19(1)(c) (d) 19(1)(d) (e) 19(1)(e) (f) 19(1)(g). Correct order 1-6:

Key: A — a-b-c-d-e-f

Explanation: Speech (a), assembly (b), association (c), movement (d), residence (e), profession (g) — note the jump from (e) to (g) because original clause (f) on property was removed in 1978.

Q28. [Q-0028] Article 21 states that no person shall be deprived of life or personal liberty except according to:

Key: D — Procedure established by law

Explanation: The text says 'procedure established by law'. 'Due process' is the American phrase the Court read in after Maneka Gandhi — the distinction the next question tests.

Q29. [Q-0029] Consider the following statements: 1. In Maneka Gandhi (1978) the Supreme Court held Article 21 procedure must be fair, just and reasonable, not arbitrary or oppressive. 2. 'Procedure established by law' means a validly enacted-law procedure, while 'due process' additionally demands the law itself be fair and reasonable — which post-Maneka Article 21 includes. 3. Maneka Gandhi was decided in 1976. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Both substantive statements are source text. Statement 3 shifts 1978 to 1976 (the Emergency/ADM Jabalpur year) — date-shift is the trap.

Q31. [Q-0031] Assertion (A): Article 19 protects freedoms of citizens only. Reason (R): Article 21 protects the life and liberty of all persons including non-citizens. Choose the correct option: 1. Both A and R are true statements. 2. R is the legal contrast the notes draw against A.

Key: C — 1 and 2 are true and 2 correctly relates to 1

Explanation: Both sentences are source text, and the notes place the Article 21 'all persons' rule as the explicit contrast to Article 19's 'citizens only'.

Q32. [Q-0032] Under Article 32, a citizen approaches:

Key: D — The Supreme Court, for enforcement of Fundamental Rights

Explanation: Article 32 runs to the Supreme Court for FR enforcement; High Courts enter via Article 226. Directive Principles are non-justiciable, so C fails.

Q33. [Q-0033] Who called Article 32 'the heart and soul of the Constitution'?

Key: A — Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

Explanation: The phrase is Ambedkar's, quoted in the Article 32 discussion. Puttaswamy is the 2017 privacy petitioner — a wrong-person trap from the same notes.

Q34. [Q-0034] Consider the following statements: 1. Article 32 is itself a Fundamental Right, so Parliament cannot suspend it by an ordinary law. 2. Under Article 32 the Supreme Court must grant a remedy when an FR is violated, while Article 226 is wider in scope but discretionary before a High Court. 3. Article 226 is narrower than Article 32 and mandatory. Which is/are correct?

Key: B — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are source text. Statement 3 inverts the comparison: 226 is wider (FRs plus other legal rights) but discretionary, not narrower and mandatory.

Q35. [Q-0035] Match the writ with its function: 1. Habeas corpus 2. Mandamus 3. Prohibition 4.

Certiorari 5. Quo warranto. Functions: (a) Command a public authority to perform a legal duty (b)

Produce a detained person before the court (c) Restrain a lower court from exceeding jurisdiction (d)

Question a person's authority to hold public office (e) Quash a lower court or tribunal order. Correct code 1-5:

Key: C — b-a-c-e-d

Explanation: Produce (habeas), command duty (mandamus), restrain excess (prohibition), quash order (certiorari), question office (quo warranto). Prohibition-vs-certiorari is the tested confusion.

Q36. [Q-0036] A writ is best defined as:

Key: D — A written order of a constitutional court commanding an act or restraint

Explanation: Written order of a constitutional court is the definition. Detention orders and Directive Principles come from other sections of the notes.

Q37. [Q-0037] Consider the following statements: 1. In ADM Jabalpur (1976) the majority held Article 21 could be suspended during the Emergency. 2. The Forty-fourth Amendment (1978) provided that Articles 20 and 21 cannot be suspended even during an Emergency. 3. Article 32 can be suspended by an ordinary law of Parliament. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: The Emergency sequence is: 1976 suspension upheld, 1978 Articles 20/21 made unsuspendable. Statement 3 contradicts the Article 32 discussion (itself an FR, unsuspendable by ordinary law).

Q41. [Q-0041] Consider the following statements: 1. The Brahmaputra is a braided river across most of Assam, shifting channels, building sandbars called chars, and flooding heavily every monsoon. 2. A braided river is a wide, shallow river splitting into many interlacing channels around temporary sandbars and islands. 3. A braided river is a single deep channel with stable banks. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1-2 give the source fact and definition. Statement 3 describes the opposite channel form — braided means many interlacing channels, not one stable one.

Q43. [Q-0043] Consider the following statements: 1. The Brahmaputra rises as the Yarlung Tsangpo in Tibet near the Chemayungdung glacier. 2. It enters Arunachal Pradesh as the Siang or Dihang and becomes the Brahmaputra in Assam after joining the Dibang and Lohit at Kobo. 3. It leaves Assam at Dhubri to enter Bangladesh as the Jamuna. 4. It leaves Assam at Dhubri to enter Bangladesh as the Padma. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1, 2 and 3 only

Explanation: Statements 1-3 trace the source course. Statement 4 swaps the Jamuna for the Padma — the wrong Bangladesh distributary name decides the key.

Q47. [Q-0047] The 15 August 1950 earthquake (magnitude 8.6) did all of the following EXCEPT:

Key: C — Set up the Brahmaputra Board in 1982

Explanation: Tilting gradients, raised bed and worse floods/erosion are the listed quake effects. The Board (1982, under the 1981 Act) is a later institutional response, not a quake effect.

South-bank tributaries rise in the Meghalaya-Nagaland-Arunachal hills, carry less silt, and run in stable, narrower channels. 3. North-bank tributaries carry less silt than south-bank ones. Which is/are correct?

Key: A — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1-2 restate the distinction. Statement 3 flips the silt contrast — the single reversed property decides the key.

Q50. [Q-0050] Match the north-bank tributary with its approximate length: 1. Subansiri 2. Manas 3. Jia Bharali (Kameng) 4. Sankosh. Lengths: (a) 442 km (b) 376 km (c) 264 km (d) 214 km. Correct code 1-4:
Key: B — a-b-c-d

Explanation: Subansiri 442, Manas 376, Jia Bharali 264, Sankosh 214 — descending order. The table lengths (264, 214) pair with the bullet lengths (442, 376).

The Sankosh forms part of the Assam-Bhutan boundary. 4. The Sankosh (Gadadhar) forms part of the Assam-West Bengal boundary. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1, 2 and 4 only

Explanation: Ranganadi and Puthimari statements are source text; Sankosh bounds Assam-West Bengal, not Assam-Bhutan (Bhutan is where it rises).

Q55. [Q-0055] Consider the following statements: 1. Assam has three soil zones: recent alluvial flood-plain soils, old alluvial terrace soils, and laterite/red soils on the Karbi and Dima Hasao hills with forest-soil patches. 2. Khadar soils are newer, finer, low-lying alluvium renewed by almost every flood; bhangar soils are older, coarser, higher-lying alluvium above normal flood limits. 3. Bhangar soils are renewed by almost every flood. Which is/are correct?

Key: C — 1 and 2 only

Explanation: Statements 1-2 are source text. Statement 3 gives bhangar the khadar property (flood renewal) — the swapped trait decides the key.
